

Rules - Junior Week 2017

Members-Please note that the majority of these rules have safety implications. Therefore, it is critical that you review them carefully, and confirm that you and your children and guests fully understand and follow all rules at all times.

1. Junior Week is limited to children that are 18 years old and younger.
2. Guest bands may be purchased for $15, and no guest will be allowed to enter the Club or allowed to participate in Junior Week activities without a guest band. If a guest leaves at night, he or she will not be readmitted without prior notification.
3. The maximum number of guest bands a member is allowed to purchase is five.
4. If a guest band is lost, a new band must be purchased at the original price of $15. However, if the band is broken, there is no charge for replacement if the band is turned in to registration.
5. All children participating in Junior Week must be wearing an armband. Armbands may be purchased as stipulated on the Junior Week schedule, and an adult must be present at the time of purchase.
6. Older children (17/18) will be required to show a picture ID before entering the dance each night. No exceptions will be made to this rule.
7. With the exception of parents and chaperones, no one over the age of 18 will be allowed to attend the dances.
8. Children may only attend the dances intended for their age group. Note that the only exception is for fifteen year olds opting to attend the 12-14 dances.
9. All members and guests must be wearing an armband to be admitted to the dances.
10. Discretion and good taste in dress and style of dance should be used.
11. Guests will not be allowed to enter the Club unless the host member leaves their name with gate security. The manager and/or security will not be responsible for calling members in order to verify guests.
12. Club members will be held responsible for all guests registered under their name.
13. The possession or use of alcohol, drugs or tobacco by minors on the club grounds or rock bar will not be tolerated. Any minor violating this rule will be reported to their parent or host member and the Little River County Sheriff's Department, and their guest band will be revoked for the remainder of Junior Week.
